FUEL CELL SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR DRIVING SAME

Examiner: K. Han SN: 10/586,792 Art Unit: 1795 April 27, 2009

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 8 and 10-22, drawn to a fuel cell system with drive means and pressure regulating means.

Group II, claim 9, drawn to a fuel cell system with drive means, pressure regulating means, and control means.

Group III, claim 23, drawn to a drive method for a fuel cell system.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The common special technical feature present in all the groups is a drive means provided in the circulation route serving to circulate fuel gas. This cannot be a special technical feature under PCT Rule 13.2 because the feature is shown in the prior art. Hamada et al. (US 5958613) teaches a fuel gas pump (6) in a circulation route (Figure 2) serving to circulate fuel gas (3:47-60), therefore presenting a lack of unity between the groups a posteriori.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
